Cincinnati Staffing Firm Recognized as PrideStaff New Office of the Year

National Award Given to Most Successful New Franchise

Cincinnati, OH February 5th, 2010 -- The Cincinnati PrideStaff office located in Milford has been honored with the New Office of the Year Award from PrideStaff headquarters in Fresno, California. The award is given annually to the PrideStaff office that has achieved the most outstanding results in revenue, growth, quality management and community involvement.

"I'm very proud of our team and what we've accomplished at the our PrideStaff office," says Michael Eckelman, Owner/Strategic-Partner of the East Cincinnati office. "We look forward to providing quality temporary and direct hire staffing solutions to businesses in the Cincinnati area and continued support to the community."

According to PrideStaff president, George A. Rogers, "The East Cincinnati office has succeeded in growing its operation into an efficient, talented staffing resource as well as a business that is strongly involved in helping its community."

About PrideStaff

PrideStaff was founded in the 1970s as 100 percent company owned units and began franchising in 1995. They are a national franchise with over 40 offices operating nationally to serve close to 3,000 clients. With 30 years in the staffing business, headquartered in Fresno, CA, PrideStaff offers the resources and expertise of a national firm with the spirit, dedication and personal service of smaller, entrepreneurial firms.
